WHEELER & GLIDDEN shoe factory. The Heaver & Glidden shoe factory, brought here from Chester through the enterprise of Decatur capital, will begin business next Tuesday at the new brick building on East Eldorado street. There has been some delay in commencing operations, owing to the adjustment of the large amount of machinery that will be used. There is a machine to nearly every window on each floor. The firm will commence cutting and fitting on Tuesday to fill orders that have been on their books for some months. The factory will start with a large number of employees, boys and young women, but they will first have to be taught how to do the work.

A CALL has been issued for a reunion of the survivors of the terrible Chatsworth wreck, which occurred August 10, 1887, by James Bennett, vice-president of the Survivors' Association. The meeting will be held on the anniversary of the disaster. Decatur has one survivor of that excursion horror, but he doesn't take kindly to the notion of holding a reunion. He wants to forget all about it, and cannot understand why the memories of that catastrophe should be kept alive. To him the association idea is one with it anything but pleasant thoughts, and he is against the foolish movement.

THE intense heat of yesterday—88 in the shade at 3 o'clock, was followed by a gathering of heavy clouds over the city from the north and south, accompanied by vivid lightning. It looked as if there would be an ugly storm, but only a few drops of rain fell in Decatur. Good rains are reported north and south of Decatur during the night.

PASSED AWAY. At 2:30 o'clock this morning Mrs. Young, mother of Emil, William, Carl, Alois, Frank and Miss Amelia Young and Mrs. John Keck, died at the home of her son Carl on East Wood street. The lady was 69 years old and had been in poor health for several years.

THE Star Club picnic. Last evening the members of the Decatur Star Cycling Club participated in a delightful picnic near the Cowford bridge, three miles east of the city. All went out on wheels and while it was rather torrid going out at 4 p. m., coming back at 7:30 the run was anything but unpleasant. The distance was covered coming back at an easy gait in 35 minutes. With the club colors borne by George Bell, the club made a parade of the streets afternoon and evening and made a circle of Lincoln Square. All along the route crowds of people looked on the sidewalks to witness the free show. The picnic was quite a success and served as a farewell testimonial to one of the members, Rev. T. W. Pinkerton, who left last night for Kentucky to be gone a month. The spread of substantial and delicacies met with his hearty approval and it was a source of satisfaction to note that his appetite is unimpaired. John Spaulding, Charles Gallagher, C. L. Hovey, Billy Emmert, Silas Long, W. A. Hise, O. Ewing, George Bell and Mr. Kennedy also made great records in the attack on the fried chicken, the ice cream and the lemon ice. On returning to Bicycle Headquarters the Star party concluded the day's outing by finishing the generous supply of lemon ice and cream, safe from the deluge of the threatened storm. The Star club is booming in membership and social enjoyment. So successful was the first picnic that others are to follow during the season. The co-operation of the many lady members of the club is a great feature. They are enthusiastic cyclists and all agree with Mr. Ewing that there is nothing more pleasurable or health-giving than wheeling, particularly on a Star picnic occasion.

FRED DUCKER, aged 16, and a lad named Wilson, both colored and residents of Springfield, started to walk from Jacksonville to Springfield last night. At New Berlin they fell down on the track and fell asleep. About 12:30 Wilson woke up by the noise of the approaching train and tried to arouse Decker. The engine struck the Decker and cut a deep gash in his breast, besides badly bruising him on his body. He was taken back to Jacksonville. He may die.

DEK SEWARD, who has gone astray with Clyde Adams, is wanted in Decatur to make good a bond of $30 put up for his appearance and unless Ben puts up the cash he will be run down and put behind the bars. Ben has a wife and child and for the Adams woman he deserted them. Mrs. Seward had her unfaithful husband chased out of town.

NEWS NOTES. While returning to their home near Tascals last evening Jacob Hancock and his wife were thrown from their buggy and fatally injured. Their horses had become frightened and ran away. The body of John Smith, a Portuguese laboring man, was found on the Chicago and Alton track near Jacksonville, on Thursday morning with a single wound on the head. It is thought that he was killed by tramps.

The Rev. Wm. Stott, Winston, Ont., states: After being ineffectually treated by seventeen different doctors for Scrofula and blood disease, I was cured by Burdock Blood Bitters. Write for proof.

POTTER on Trial. The case of The People against Yate Davis and Ed. Potter, charged by Miss Pearl Birchfield with the larceny of $8 from a letter, came up for trial this forenoon in Justice Curtis' court, with A. H. Mills for the prosecution, and Lee & Gray for the defense. The trial of Davis was deferred until Monday next. Evidence against Potter was submitted, and testimony on behalf of the defense is being heard as we go to press. The prosecution make the point that Potter is the chief offender in this letter case, and C. O. Leforge, who will represent Davis at his trial, is assisting Mills in the prosecution of Potter. Davis claims that Miss Birchfield gave him the letter to mail, and he gave it to Potter; that is all he pretends to know about the letter or its contents. Potter enters a general denial to all statements implicating him. If the government officials hear of this case, the matter will doubtless be ventilated also in the United States District court at Springfield.

A Show of Their Own. Erle Remington, the Decatur sobriety actress, and her husband, W. E. Hines, Irish comedian, have organized a clever company and will soon start out with a play of their own for a tour of the principal cities. The play is "Heart of New York," which is said to be A-1 in songs, dances and specialties. The company is looked ahead for the coming season.

DAMAGE ADJUSTED. In the county court last evening the jury in the matter of widening Eldorado street, between Water and North Main, a distance of one block, Mrs. Henry Bishop was awarded $1733.30 as damages. J. F. Montgomery and Mrs. W. R. Shall were awarded $1300. It was fixed that $275 be allowed for moving a house.

A Beautiful Gift. At the meeting of Canton Decatur No. 19, held last night in the hall of Celestial Lodge of Odd Fellows, it was voted to attend the Cantonment in Chicago. The Canton in full uniform will leave for Chicago on Monday and will have their headquarters at the Palmer House during the great meeting. During the session the Canton received a very pleasant surprise in the nature of a beautiful gift from Mrs. Charles M. Lytle. It is an elegant blue silk banner 15x21 inches, bearing the letters in gold: "Headquarters Canton Decatur No. 19." The banner is tastefully trimmed with gold braid and tassels, and will be without doubt the handsomest banner displayed at the Palmer House, where it will be given a conspicuous place. The gift of Mrs. Lytle was formally presented to the Canton by Mayor John Irwin, and was received with fitting words of thanks by Captain George F. Bell. A committee of three was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions of thanks, which will be printed on silk and presented to Mrs. Lytle.

CAMP ECHOES. Meeting at the Park To-Day—Rev. Hector To-Night. This is the second day of the National Prohibition camp meeting at Oakland Park. Attendance large this forenoon. Mrs. Baxter conducted an interesting children's meeting. Rev. Hobbs offered the opening prayer. Rev. John Ingraham conducted the free parliament. The question discussed was, "What should we do for Nebraska?" The great importance of the issue in that state was presented by Rev. Ingraham, and the need of financial help and combined action was stated. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Willard of Blue Mound, and Rev. Rutherford of Mattoon. The Jingles gave "No License."

This afternoon Mrs. Baxter delivered the general address. To-night Rev. J. H. Hector will have full swing, with special songs by the Jingles.

To-morrow morning the Decatur Loyal Legion workers occupy the platform with songs and recitations. Prohibition training school at 10:30 a. m. Afternoon addresses by President Johann, of Eureka College, and Hon. R. R. Link.

Col. J. J. Hickman will talk Saturday night, and Mrs. Baxter, who is a Congregationalist, will have charge of the religious services Sunday forenoon. Sunday afternoon and night Col. Hickman and Mrs. Clara Hoffman will speak.

Rev. J. H. Hector had an audience of about 2000 to hear him yesterday afternoon. He took occasion to compare the anti-slavery agitation to the present warfare waged by the prohibitionists, and made good points for his position in favor of the abolition of the liquor traffic.

Hector is a colored man of commanding appearance and is quite popular on the lecture platform. His remarks were well received. He was followed by Rev. Ingraham, of Nebraska, Rev. Spruill, of Macon, and Rev. Griffin.

At night, despite the threatening aspect of the weather, the tent was filled. Mrs. Baxter, of Charlotte, Mich., who is a noted W. C. T. U. worker, had outlined points for a prolonged address, when it appeared as if the storm was about to burst upon the camp. As a precautionary measure Manager Smith thought it best to stop the exercises, and the meeting was dismissed. The storm turned out to be a false alarm and the hundreds who went home might have remained, as the rain did not materialize.

Decatur's Poet. In Erle Remington, (Lizzie Allison,) the versatile actress, Decatur is reaping fame in the line of poetical effusions in the columns of the New York Clipper. Nearly every week Erle has a poem in the Clipper. Her latest contribution appears this week as follows:

ENCOURAGEMENT.
(Written for the New York Clipper.)
GABLE REMINGTON.
That which we love, we have,
Fear not, oh, dearest heart;
If it be time by right,
It will be of use a part.
No power on earth or heaven
Can rend two souls that meet,
Bending and perfect through all space,
They make common sweet
The good cheer, my friend,
Look upward! there, you see
The light of love, full unobscured,
In silence waits for thee.

Some trouble and a great deal of inconvenience was caused this morning at the railroad crossing at the Union depot by a box car which was wrecked at that point. The car was marked "C. W. & B." A bursted wheel was the cause of the wreck and it was with great difficulty that it was cleared away. The front trucks were torn completely off, the weight of the car, which was laden with grain, planting them in the ground about six inches.
